U.S.-Argentine Oil Talks Collapse

Effort To Head Off Annulment Of Pacts Fails

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — U.S.-Argentine relations sank lower Monday with the collapse of a Washington effort to head off a decision to annul American oil contracts in Argentina.

Hardly had Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman left this capital Sunday than the government leaked a communication announcing the government's "sovereign and irrevocable decision" to annul the contracts in an action to be taken this week.

An authoritative U.S. source said that failure by the Argentine government to act within the concept of the U.S. position can harm the climate for foreign capital and with it the Alliance for Progress.

U.S. Demands Compensation

Argentina has promised to act within the law. The United States demands immediate and just compensation if the contracts are annulled.

In his successful campaign for the presidency, Illia assailed the legality of the foreign oil contracts because then President Arturo Frondizi signed them in 1958 without any action by the Argentine Congress.

The foreign oil companies, mostly American, insist that the contracts were legal and that under this assumption they have sunk $397 million since 1958 in developing Argentina's oil industry.

The communique leaked to the press made no mention of indemnifying the oil companies for their investments.

Agency To Take Over

The government informant said Illia hopes that much of the work done by the foreign companies can be taken over by the state oil agency.

Representatives of the foreign oil companies met with Harriman on Sunday before he left for Sao Paulo, Brazil, to attend a meeting of the Alliance for Progress. They reported they had got nowhere in attempts to have their contracts renegotiated.

The companies are: Esso Argentina, Standard of New Jersey; Tennessee Gas Transmission Co., Houston, Tex.; Pan American Argentina International, Standard of Indiana; Continental Oil; Cities Service; Marathon Oil; Shell, British-Dutch; Transworld, Kerr-McGee of Tulsa, Okla.; Southeastern Drilling Co. of Fort Worth, Tex.; and Ente Nazionale Idrocarburi of Italy.

Murder Ruled In Fire Deaths

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Murder was the verdict Monday in the case of two charred bodies, believed to be those of a teen-age couple, found in a burned auto in a lovers' lane.

That was the ruling of Dr. Harry Mignerey, coroner. It came while sheriff's deputies searched for clues in a desolate area west of Toledo where the bodies were found Sunday.

The bodies were burned beyond recognition. Dr. Mignerey said the boy, believed to be Edward Lee Mitchell, 18, of near Liberty Center, was shot at least three times. The girl was identified from dental records as Mary Caldwell, 17, of Toledo. She suffered multiple skull fractures, the coroner said.

The two were last seen Saturday night when Mitchell picked up Miss Caldwell at her home, saying they were going to a drive-in movie.

Three young men discovered the smoldering car Sunday afternoon as they prepared for target shooting in the sandy, wooded area.

Douglas-Home Says Polaris Deters Soviet

LONDON (UPI)—Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home said Monday night he believes the West may have passed its period of greatest danger from the Soviet Union because of the deterrent power of the U.S. Polaris missile.

He said the West may be "over the watershed of danger with the Soviet Union." Douglas-Home spoke at the lord mayor's banquet at the Guild hall.

But he warned "If I may say so with respect to Mr. Khrushchev, statesmen cannot use words like 'over our dead bodies' because that means war."

Last week Khrushchev told 20 American business executives that if he halted U.S. convoy on the Berlin autobahn had attempted to move past the Soviet blockade, it would have to be done "over our dead bodies."

Douglas-Home, who earned a reputation for toughness in dealing with the Russians during his three years as foreign minister, said he thought "the truth about nuclear war is as clear to Khrushchev as it is to the West."

He said if the West has really weathered its period of greatest danger from the Soviet threat "it is because the deterrent has deterred."

Earlier Monday he formally took command of the Conservative party and told its members "I am fairly spoiling for a fight" with Labor in the next general elections.

Rash Of Jewel Robberies Plagues New York Police

NEW YORK (AP) — Jewel thieves continued to plague the New York police force, whose top sleuths already are tied up in an investigation of Friday's daylight gem hijacking.

Total loot for the year neared the $2-million mark. It would have been more than twice as high had not bandits abandoned some of the valuables they seized during last week's big robbery.

Victim of the latest theft was Jack Rubin, a Manhattan jeweler, whose Bronx apartment was raided by three men posing first as detectives. They escaped with an estimated $30,000 in gems. Once again, the bandits struck in broad daylight.

The thieves looted a bedroom and wrested rings from the fingers of Rubin's wife, 63, and their daughter, Rhoda Toronto. All Rubin was able to do was

Bandit Receives Rough Reception

WASHINGTON (AP)—A would-be holdup man entered a Northeast Washington liquor store Monday, fired three shots and then fled when one of the owners broke a bottle over his head.

A few minutes later, police said, a bleeding suspect was picked up in the neighborhood.

Benjamin Bran, 52, one of the proprietors, said the shots fired by the man entered a wall. Then when he turned as a woman started to enter the store, Bran said he grabbed the man's arm and tried to twist the gun out of his hand.

At this point the other owner, Spiros J. Lampiros, 62, grabbed a bottle and smashed it over the bandit's head.

Solar Rocket Engine Tested

PASADENA, Calif. (UPI) — Scientists have carried out successful tests of a space vehicle rocket engine that operates principally on sunlight, it was disclosed Monday.

The engine, called a solar-hydrogen rocket (SOHR), uses large lightweight mirrors to focus the sun's energy into a cavity containing hydrogen-filled tubes. The heated hydrogen expands through a nozzle to provide thrust for a vehicle in space.

Tests of the SOHR were revealed by Electro-Optical Systems, Inc., whose scientists developed the engine, and the Air Force.

Moro Asked To Form Italian Government

ROME (UPI)—President Antonio Segni Monday asked Christian Democratic party leader Aldo Moro, 47, to form a new government and end the deep political crisis that has threatened Italy with violence and economic chaos.

Moro is expected to try to form a left-of-center government in alliance with the left-wing Socialists and the Social Democrats and Republicans.

But his political path is long and steep with the Communists threatening trouble and his own party divided.

Goulart Calls For Latin Unity, Ignoring U.S.

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP) — Brazil's President Joao Goulart said today Latin American countries could solve their economic problems by themselves through a united front. He seemed to exclude the United States.

He claimed that the high cost of industrial imports and low prices paid for Latin American raw materials was a major cause of financial drain in the area.

Goulart made his heaviest impact on the already-beclouded opening session of the Inter-American Economic and Social Council, however, by what he did not say. He did not once refer to the United States as the chief supplier of funds to the Alliance for Progress, nor to foreign investment for Latin American development.

Brazil had already balked at giving the Alliance new machinery and U.S.-Argentine relations worsened over an oil contract dispute.

Since Brazil and Argentina are the two largest Latin American members of the 20-nation alliance, any problems involving them could jeopardize the future of President Kennedy's multi-billion-dollar aid program.

Purpose of the conference is to give the Alliance a hard new look—and some fresh muscles. The Alliance has run into trouble from the dominant conservative classes in most countries because their privileges would be curtailed under the reforms proposed by Kennedy.

The United States is represented by Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman, who arrived from Buenos Aires where he apparently failed in his effort to dissuade Argentina from annulling American oil contracts in Argentina.

Jap Leftists Blame Ikeda In Disasters

Conservative Party Rivals Will Conduct Own Investigations

TOKYO (AP) — Leftist politicians blame the Conservative government for a coal mine explosion and a train disaster that killed more than 600 persons.

As funerals were held Tuesday for the victims, the Socialist, Democratic Socialist and Communist parties announced they would make their own investigations of the twin disasters that struck within six hours of each other Saturday.

The parties sent politicians to the scene of the mine disaster at Omuta, on the southern island of Kyushu; and to Yokohama, where two commuter trains and a freight piled up.

The politicians accused Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda's government of pursuing a policy to protect "monopolistic capitalist classes" at the cost of the lives of workers.

The obvious aim was to play on the sympathy of Japanese, who will vote in parliamentary elections Nov. 21.

Ikeda's Liberal-Democratic party has been confident of winning 300 or more seats in the lower house of Parliament, where it now holds 286 of the 467 seats.

The Mitsui Mining Co. reported 449 miners were killed, seven missing and about 450 injured in the coal dust explosion in its mine at Omuta.

Railway officials said 162 persons were killed when a commuter train rammed a wrecked freight train, then was derailed into the path of another passenger train. Another 70 persons were injured.

President Kennedy sent a message to Ikeda offering condolences on behalf of the American people on the two disasters.

Two upper house committees of Parliament decided to investigate the circumstances and determine whether the two disasters could have been prevented.

Puzzled mine investigators concluded that somewhere in the vast workings of the mine, a short circuit had caused a spark to ignite the coal dust.

Railway investigators also worked at the railway disaster scene near Yokohama, the third three-train smashup in 18 months.

Negro To Run For President

NEW YORK (UPI) — Negro lawyer Paul B. Zuber Monday announced as a candidate for president. He said he wants to educate both the Democratic and Republican parties on civil rights and challenged Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama to a debate.

Zuber, who led school integration fights in Chicago, New Rochelle, N.Y., and Englewood, N.J., thus became the second declared presidential candidate. Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller announced last week as a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination.

Zuber said he would enter the New Hampshire and West Virginia presidential primaries as an independent candidate.

Wallace, who made a recent tour of New England to explain the segregationist side of the civil rights issue, said he also may enter the New Hampshire primary as a candidate for the Democratic nomination to draw support from President Kennedy.

Editors Believe Kennedy Will Win

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — A cross-section of the nation's daily newspaper editors feel President Kennedy will win reelection, defeating Richard M. Nixon — a Republican compromise candidate.

The editors were in Miami Beach for the annual Associated Press managing editors meeting, starting Tuesday.

All but a handful of the first 50 editors arriving felt Kennedy would win reelection.

They were questioned by the Miami Herald.

Girl's Leg Removed As Mother Protests

CLEVELAND (AP)—Christine Simko lost her right leg Monday in a five-hour operation designed to save her life from the spread of a malignant tumor as her embittered mother cried: "What kind of life can my daughter have now?"

Permission for surgery for the 14-year-old frightened girl was granted by Juvenile Court Judge Walter G. Whitlatch last Tuesday. It came over the strong objections of Christine's mother, Mrs. Lily Simko, a blonde British war bride who now is divorced. She has brought up Christine alone for the past six years.

Even up to the very last moment before the operation, Mrs. Simko refused to sign a paper giving consent. It wasn't needed, but doctors preferred to have it.

As the operation proceeded at Metropolitan General Hospital under a team of four surgeons, Mrs. Simko sat in a corridor. The strains of her travail showed plainly on her face.

"I saw Christine in the morning before the operation," the mother said. "She cried to me. 'They said she always ran away and got into trouble. The doctors are operating on her leg so she won't be any trouble again. She won't be able to run anymore. She'll be in a chair.'"

The head of the surgical team met with newsmen after the operation — and after he had talked to Mrs. Simko. He asked that his name not be used, but gave permission to be quoted fully. The doctor said: "We first explored the possibility of removing the tumor without amputation, but when it was evident that there was no chance to save both the leg and the girl's life, we had to resort to the radical surgery."

He described the tumor — about four inches long and four inches in diameter and located in the right hip — as uncommon, particularly so in children of Christine's age.

The surgeon said the procedure of the operation and possible amputation were fully explained to Christine.

In the day's debate, Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York indicated some doubt about the idea of bishops sharing authority with the Pope, a concept called collegiality.

Death Of London Playgirl Uncovers Blackmail Ring

LONDON (AP)—The diary of a beautiful brunette and more than 3,000 photographs of her with men in compromising situations have led police to a blackmail ring exploiting the secret sex life of its victims.

The brunette, known as Julie Molley, is dead. Her frightened customers are being questioned by Scotland Yard.

The 24-year-old good-time girl, who worked in a dentist's office by day and frequented the fashionable West End night spots by night, was found sprawled across a four-poster bed in a rooming house north of London nine days ago. An empty pill bottle was nearby.

But police also found two diaries giving the names of prominent men in business and society. There were several hundred letters, some reported to have been written by army officers, civil servants, doctors and show business people.

The detectives pounced because they had been investigating Julie before her death. Several weeks before one man had complained, and police sources said the diaries contained the evidence they needed.

They said she worked like this: Julie placed advertisements in newspapers offering raincoats for sale. The brand name was a code word that tipped off the pervert customers. Julie never denied spoke at a news conference here announcing an "industrial" of the year award to Charles E. Daniel, board chairman of Daniel Construction Co., Greenville, S. C.

Simple Rites Held At Tomb Of Unknowns

Silent President Places Red, White And Blue Wreath

By The Associated Press

President Kennedy led the nation in honoring its war veterans—the living and the dead—by silently and solemnly placing a red, white and blue wreath at the Tomb of the Unknowns in Arlington National Cemetery Monday.

This simple but moving ceremony under a cloudless blue sky was keyed to a grim reminder that while man has made great strides in science and living comfort he has not yet learned to live in enduring peace with his neighbor.

In cities and villages across the country there were other ceremonies and parades and speeches. For many workers and students it was a holiday. For some, this 10th annual Veterans Day was observed simply by placing flowers on the grave of loved ones who died in war.

The reminder that it is still necessary for America to maintain armed forces was voiced before the Tomb of the Unknowns by a Medal of Honor winner, Gen. David M. Shoup, Marine Corps commandant.

He cautioned: "We cannot practice the deception that somehow, without alertness and conscious effort on our part, an everlasting panacea may develop which will abolish for all time man's oldest plague—war."

The chief executive, a Navy veteran, had joined a crowd of about 5,000 to hear Shoup deliver the brief eulogy in the white marble amphitheater near the tomb. Kennedy did not speak but stood silently to be introduced.

The tomb was flanked by contingents of all the services, their rifles tipped with shining bayonets. In the background, stood a line of veterans, including one wearing the campaign hat of the Spanish-American War fought 65 years ago.

Among the other ceremonies taking place in Arlington Cemetery, was the placing of a wreath of poppies from Flanders fields on the grave of Gen. John J. Pershing, who commanded the U.S. World War I Expeditionary Forces. The poppies of Flanders in France were made famous in a wartime poem by John McCrae.

Kennedy's wreath-laying took place at 11 a.m., the hour the guns stopped firing along the Western front just 45 years ago. This holiday was observed as Armistice Day in memory of that occasion until 1954 when it was renamed Veterans Day to honor those who fought in all of America's wars.

While many of the ceremonies centered on honoring the dead, there were tributes too to the 22 million living veterans.

In Welch, W.Va., Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson told a gathering of 1,300 persons crammed into a small theater it is clear that the cold war will continue. "Whoever has illusions to the contrary need only read the headlines from Berlin," he said.

In New York, the city's Council of Veterans of Foreign Wars held its annual parade down 5th Avenue to Madison Square Park for services at the Eternal Light, which honors World War I dead. Thirty-seven wreaths were placed at the monument.

At Times Square, police halted traffic and most pedestrians paused for two minutes while two boy scouts blew taps on the marquee of the Astor Hotel.

Nixon To Bar Name From Primaries

NEW YORK (UPI)—Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon said Monday he foresaw "no circumstances whatever" under which he would become a 1964 presidential candidate, and promised "legal steps" to keep his name from being entered in primary elections.

By "legal steps," Nixon explained, he meant that he would ask officials of any state where he was suggested as a primary candidate to remove his name from the ballot.

"I repeat what I have said before," Nixon said, "I am not a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination next year." The former vice president here announcing an "industrial" of the year award to Charles E. Daniel, board chairman of Daniel Construction Co., Greenville, S. C.

Senators To Quiz Estes Today But Will He Talk?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Texas declined to disclose whether he promoter Billie Sol Estes kept to answer any questions. Senators guessing as to whether At main issue is Estes' acquisition of more than 3,000 acres Tuesday about his big money extra cotton-acreage allotments which collapsed in bank-land purchases and lease-backs of scandal.

Estes has been convicted of fraud charges growing out of some of activities, and is appealing both cases. Young Estes once built an image of himself as a political power with a golden touch and entry to high places in Washington. In recent months, he has engaged in evangelism and social work.

He is the last scheduled witness in the Senate's stormy and long-stalled probe of allegations that political influence helped him to amass a fortune through manipulations of federal farm-aid programs.

Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman, Under Secretary Charles S. Murphy and other top-echelon Agriculture Department officials swore Estes never profited by as much as a dime from political influence. They acknowledged there had been a whole series of mistakes, but insisted that there had been no wilful wrongdoing in their agency.

N. Battle Hales, an Agriculture Department employee, however, testified that the treatment Estes received looked like favoritism to him.

The investigation has been in recess for more than a year, lest questioning of Estes prejudice his rights in trials on the federal and state fraud charges on which he was convicted. Those charges had no direct connection with his dealings with the Agriculture Department.

Chairman John L. McClellan, D-Ark., seeking to wind up the inquiry which began in May 1962, told a reporter Estes has

Experts Defend Insect Sprays, Urge Caution

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The backyard gardener was pictured today as the biggest offender in dangerous use of pesticides.

He hasn't been reading labels on insect sprays and other chemical weapons carefully and "unintentionally has been doing more harm to himself and his neighbor" than the farmer who is aware of the hazards, said Dr. Henry Hurtig of Canada's Department of Agriculture.

"No farmer would likely use four pounds of a pesticide when directions call for half a pound—it costs too much, and he knows his crops might have a residue exceeding legal limits," said Dr. Robert White-Stevens of the American Cyanamid Co. of Princeton, N.J.

They and other experts, speaking to the American Public Health Association, took issue with charges that widespread use of pesticide and agricultural chemicals is causing vast harm to human and wild life.

Accidents have occurred in which humans were fatally poisoned and there have been reported instances of damage to wild life, birds and fish, the speakers said.

But chemicals combatting insect and plant diseases have been a major foundation stone of America's remarkable food production, the speakers said.

"We need more information, facts and education and less emotion, passion and bias," on the question of health and pesticides said Dr. Bernard L. Oser, Food and Drug Research Laboratories, Inc., Massapequa, N.Y. He said the hazards had been exaggerated.

Bugler Recalls How He Sounded War's End In '18

TYLER, Tex. (AP)—The bugler who sounded the end of World War I recalled the incident Monday at a Veterans Day observance in this East Texas City.

Retired railroad man Hartley B. Edwards came here from his Denison, Tex., home to take part in the celebration. He brought along the bugle he used 45 years ago.

As a member of Gen. John J. Pershing's private drum and bugle corps, Edwards recalled standing beneath the Arc de Triomphe in Paris and blowing Taps.

"I thought it was funny blowing Taps at 11 in the morning, but they told me to blow and I blew," Edwards said.

CD Employee's Firing Upheld

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—The Maryland Court of Appeals upheld Monday the authority of the Baltimore City Civil Service Commission to dismiss an employee of the Baltimore Civil Defense Agency.

It returned the ruling in the case of Carmen J. Deyes, who failed to pass a written examination in 1961 for the position he had been holding as chief of logistics.

Deyes continued in the position pending the ruling by the high court.

He contended that as an employee of a state agency he was not subject to control of the city commission and that the examination given him was purposely designed to avoid areas in which he was most competent and stressed accounting matters which which he was less familiar.

The high court rejected both contentions.

It said of Deyes's claim that civil defense employees should not be considered municipal employees because in the event of emergency they must go to the aid of others outside the jurisdiction.

"This possibility of service to others than local residents does not control. City firemen may go out to neighboring counties or even to other states in great emergencies, but they are and remain city employees."

WHO Seeks First Baby Vaccinated With TB Serum

GENEVA (AP) — The U.N. World Health Organization is trying to locate one of the most famous babies in medical history.

Officials say the only clue they have is that the baby—now over 42 years old—is believed to be in the United States.

He was the first baby ever to be vaccinated with antituberculosis serum. It happened in Paris on July 1, 1921, but the doctor who administered the vaccination is dead and his widow, herself a doctor in Paris, says she cannot find the patient's name or any other data in her late husband's files.

WHO wants to contact the "baby" before April 7 — next year's World Health Day to demonstrate that a vaccinated baby can grow into a healthy adult even if it was raised by a tubercular grandmother who took over after its mother died of tuberculosis.

State Checking On "Odd Size" Cordial Bottles

BALTIMORE (AP) — Do cordial and brandy bottles just look smaller? Or do their odd shapes hide odd volumes?

The Alcoholic Beverages Division of the State Comptroller's Office intends to find out.

Roger V. Laynor, the division chief, said Monday his office is questioning liquor manufacturers who do business in Maryland to find out the extent to which "odd size" bottles are used.

"We are trying to find out if there is need for regulation in this area in order to prevent fraud on a public used to buying certain standard size bottles," he said.

The federal government regulates the sizes of bottles of distilled spirits. The state regulates the size of beer containers by limiting the denominations of tax stamps used on container tops. But there are no controls on sizes of cordial, brandy or direct bottles.

"The danger is that people might think they are getting a fifth of cordial when actually they are only getting two-thirds of a quart," Laynor said. "It is very easy to make a bottle which contains two-thirds of a quart look like a fifth."

He said questionnaires mailed to the manufacturers will probably not be returned for at least a month.

Red "Sprung" By Terrorists

CARACAS, Venezuela (UPI)—Masked terrorists shot their way into a hospital in Barquisimeto, Lara state, Monday and freed a wounded Communist deputy being treated there under police guard.

Official sources said two policemen were killed and a third wounded in the attack. Newspapers said, however, all three officers were slain.

The Communist deputy, Victor Barraz, who was being held for treatment of injuries suffered in street demonstrations last week, escaped with the rescuing party.

There were 45 other patients in the ward when the deputy when the terrorists broke in, guns in hand and with stockings pulled over their heads as masks. Police guards had no chance to resist. They were required to be disarmed while in the hospital.

Army and police forces, meanwhile, broke up a 10-man guerrilla detachment operating out of La Tasa, in Falcon state, and seized arms and Communist literature. One person was killed and three others wounded.

In Caracas, police disclosed one agent was killed and four others wounded early Sunday in a terrorist attack on a private party in the slum area in the west of the city.

Reckord Urges U. S. Assert Berlin Right

SILVER SPRING, Md. (AP)—Lt. Gen. Milton A. Reckord, Maryland's adjutant general, told a Veterans Day gathering Monday that the United States should demand its right for free access to Berlin.

Reckord, who was provost marshal general of Europe for the Allied Armies in World War II, said this country made a mistake in permitting the Russians to take Berlin.

"And now we err in permitting interference of travel to Berlin via the Autobahn," Reckord said.

Salary Increase Plan Studied By Teachers Group

The Allegany County Teachers Association is considering a proposal by its legislative committee that calls for a salary increase that would particularly benefit those teachers at top scale.

Robert T. Thomas, president of the association, said the present salary range, from $4,700 to $6,900, would be adjusted to run from the same starting salary up to $7,500 under the committee's proposal.

Thomas said the teachers unit is appreciative of the across-the-board raise worked out last year by the Allegany County Board of Education and approved by the County Board of Commissioners. However, Thomas pointed out, it is the general feeling in the association that there is much that can be done to attract and hold the better teachers in the county system.

The existing salary range, the president explains, places beginning teachers in the Allegany County school system among the top third in the state, the greatest differential being $300 more than is paid starting teachers in Cecil County, and $200 more in Baltimore County.

A different picture is presented however in a comparison of the top salaries in Allegany County with those of other Maryland counties. Thomas said the top scale in Allegany County is ninth from the bottom, thus placing the county in approximately the lower third in the state.

The greatest difference between the top teacher salaries in this and other counties, according to Thomas, is $1,400, in Prince Georges, and $1,090, in Montgomery County.

Stressing that a group of experienced teachers is the core of any good educational system, Thomas said the Teachers Association feels it is imperative that the top scale be increased so as to keep the good teachers who are attracted to Allegany County, and at the same time to reward those who have been serving in the system over a number of years.

The legislative committee's proposal calls for a $600 increase to approximately 427 teachers, Thomas says. While noting that the final mechanics will have to be worked out by the superintendent of schools, the association president said it is hoped the proposed increase can be worked out in the same number of steps, 13, that it now takes to reach top scale.

The present scale calls for the starting salary plus $300 for new teachers with master's degrees, $400 more for masters plus 30 hours, $500 for masters plus 60 hours, and $600 for the teacher with a doctorate.

Thomas reports the salary proposal now under consideration proposes the master's degree receive $500 above each step; the master's plus 30 hours, $1,000 above each step; the master's plus 60 hours, $1,250 at each step, and the doctorate $1,500 at each step.

The scale, he explains, parallels the one in effect in Frederick County for advance degrees.

Thomas also emphasized that the association would not rule out any across-the-board raise since beginning teachers are establishing families and also working toward advanced degrees.

The association president also pointed out that a recent resolution on teachers salaries by the National Education Association states:

"The salaries of beginning qualified teachers should be at least $6,000, and for masters degree teachers with ten years of teaching experience should range to $13,000 and higher, followed by continuing salary advances."

4-H Youths To Compete Nationally

Three Allegany County 4-H Club members have been declared winners in state competition and will attend the National 4-H Congress in Chicago December 1-5.

They are Andrea Bowden, 16, Lonaconing, winner of the state award for her record book in entomology; Wesley Gordon, 18, RD-1, Flintstone, winner of the state agricultural award, and David Norris, 19, Baltimore Pike, winner in the achievement program.

Miss Bowden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Bowden Jr., 83 East Main Street, Lonaconing, has been interested in the study of insects since 1962 and pursues her interest using homemade equipment. She first gave an illustrated lecture at the Valley High School Science Club with the 4-H Entomology Project Guide and after demonstrating at her own Lonaconing 4-H Club, was chosen as representative to Allegany County Demonstration Day.

Gordon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin M. Gordon and is a member of the Breakneck 4-H Club of which his father is local leader. Gordon began his project work in 1956 with a beef heifer.

Over the years he has built the herd to several animals, and carried out field crops, garden and tractor projects to round out his agricultural program.

David Norris is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph E. Norris and is a member of the Baltimore Pike 4-H Club of which his father is a local leader.

A club member for 11 years, he has carried a number of projects including electric, poultry, garden, handyman and junior leadership. His first major event was winning the state public speaking contest in 1961.

The Hercules Powder Company of Wilmington, Del., is donor of the entomology award won by Miss Bowden. International Harvester Company is donor of the agriculture award and Ford Motor Company donor of the achievement award.

The bidding:

Pass Pass 4♥ 4NT

Pass Double Pass Pass

The unusual no trump is one of the more colorful conventions to be devised in recent years. It provides that, where a player has made a no trump overall that cannot possibly have a natural meaning, the no trump bid is to be construed as a take-out double for the minor suits. Partner is expected to respond in either diamonds or clubs for, if the no trump bidder wished to hear a major suit, he would have made a take-out double.

When South opened the bidding with four hearts in the third position, it was West's desire to compete in one of the minor suits, but he wasn't certain which one, so he bid four no trump in order to solicit his partner's opinion. The four no trump bid could hardly be Blackwood after South's opening bid and, since West has bypassed spades to make his call, it is clear that he has both clubs and diamonds and wishes East to take his choice.

Equity Suits Filed

Two new equity suits have been filed in Allegany County Circuit Court. The bills of complaint were titled Mary E. Goodfellow vs. D. Clifford Goodfellow, and James P. Williams vs. Nora Williams.

East dutifully responded with five clubs and South, who felt he had not yet given his all, persisted to five hearts. West had already done his duty, and passed this bid around to his partner. East chose to double for penalties, inasmuch as he had some high card strength and his relative shortness in West's suits indicated that the latter's values would not be entirely duplicated.

West was anxious to obtain a spade ruff but, in order to do so, he must at one and the same time put East in the lead and communicate to partner that he had a void. He decided to play East for the king of clubs, and therefore chose the eight of clubs for his opening lead.

When East's king of clubs held the first trick, he realized that his partner, by underleading the ace, was desperately trying to communicate some message. It did not take him very long to determine that West must be void in spades, for East had his own and dummy's length in the suit to support the inference to be made from the opening lead. A spade was returned for West to ruff, and the latter quickly produced his ace of clubs to score the setting trick.

Had West led the king of diamonds originally, South would have ruffed in his hand, drawn trump and discarded a club on dummy's fourth spade to score an overtrick. Even with the ace of clubs lead and a club continuation, East would be put to a very tough test in deciding whether to try for a spade ruff or attempt to cash the ace of diamonds. If he makes the wrong choice, South will easily run off with the balance of the tricks.

Appalachian Thruway Tour Is Planned

Thousands of central Pennsylvania residents will take part in the official tour of the proposed Appalachian Thruway Thursday and a large crowd is expected to greet a caravan of that state's officials when it arrives at the eastern outskirts of Cumberland about 4:30 p. m. Thursday.

The Thruway is proposed as an all-weather, high speed road between Williamsport (Pa.) and Cumberland, passing through Lycoming, Clinton, Centre, Blair, Redford in Pennsylvania and Allegany County in Maryland, along the present U. S. 220.

Robert C. Petersen, manager of the local Chamber of Commerce, reported that because of the high interest being shown in Pennsylvania, it is hoped that a large crowd of local officials and citizens meets the caravan when it reaches here.

The tour opens at 8 a. m. at Williamsport with 100 attending a breakfast meeting. Brief stops will be made at Jersey Shore, Lock Haven, Tyrone, Altoona and Bedford for presentations and explanations of the route.

A delegation will meet the caravan at the Pennsylvania-Maryland border and accompany it to the Maryland historical marker commemorating the original construction of the Bedford-Cumberland road by the then Col. George Washington more than 200 years ago.

Proceeding here, the motorcade will leave U. S. 220 to follow the location of the new U. S. 220 being built by Maryland from the Pennsylvania border to U. S. 40, the National Highway. The tour will stop on Route 40 at the eastern outskirts of Cumberland where the new U. S. 220 will join it.

William L. Wilson, president of the Chamber of Commerce, will preside at the ceremony, the Fort Hill and Allegany High School sylvanians officials are scheduled to speak.

Two County Homemakers Elected To State Council

Mrs. Douglas Smith, National Highway, was elected treasurer of the Maryland State Council of Homemakers Clubs; and Mrs. K. O. Nelson, McMullen Highway, cultural chairman; annual fall meeting of the council, held November 6-7 at Howard County fair grounds.

The new president is Mrs. Earle Blankner, of Sykesville. President also of her local homemakers club, Mrs. Blankner also is vice president of the Carroll County Agricultural Center board of directors and a 4-H leader. She has taught Bible school for several years.

A 20-year homemakers' club member, Mrs. Smith is past president on the local and county levels, attending the University of Maryland's Rural Women's Short Course 18 times. She is a board member and chairman of the surgical dressing group of Memorial Hospital Auxiliary.

New chairmen for two-year terms are Mrs. Jean Fauver of Montgomery County, community development; Mrs. Thomas McConville of Baltimore County, publicity; Mrs. W. Donald Miller of Harford County, international relations; Mrs. Russell Frock of Carroll County, health; Mrs. Basil Waters of Montgomery County, citizenship and civil defense; Mrs. Thomas Haves of Howard County, safety; and Mrs. Nelson, culture.

Directors of two of the state's five districts are Mrs. Charles Reed of Baltimore City and Mrs. Otis Hastings of Dorchester County, while the directors of Rural Women's Short Course are Mrs. Lester Conrad, Washington County; Mrs. Leonard Culpepper, Harford County; Mrs. Hearon Buttrel, Anne Arundel County; Mrs. Ellsworth Marshall, Dorchester County; and Mrs. George Lowe, Caroline County.

Challenging the group to keep up with the demands of the changing world was Dr. Margaret Brown, director of home economics division, Federal Extension Service, USDA. "Dependents are increasing as more than one in three Americans are less than 20 and one in 11 is over 65," notes Dr. Brown.

Families must provide for them adequately while pressures of today's world continue. "Women teach more children, vote more and spend more money than men. They need educational information to make wise consumer decisions."

Other talks by homemakers indicated they are honoring newly naturalized citizens, sewing and cooking for hospital patients, studying the arts, taking part in medical self-help courses and promoting farm-city understanding during the year.

Secrets Of Charm

by John Robert Powers

First Impression

A woman was astonished recently at the first compliment a new acquaintance gave her. He told her how much he liked her voice and described it as soft and pleasing. He contrasted it with those which were irritating to him—the harsh and shrill voices and the ones which never seemed to stop.

Too often, people don't realize that the voice is one of the most important factors in that first impression. A very attractive woman in every other respect may fail to interest the person she would like most to impress only because her voice is unpleasant to him. He suspects that the voice is indicative of her education and breeding, as well as of her emotional stability.

Listen carefully to the voices you hear each day. You must become aware of them in order to determine whether yours is harsh, loud, shrill, monotonous, or perhaps lacks clarity or smoothness. You might then desire to take a few voice lessons to learn breath control, placement, and pitch. However, without such training, it's possible to change the volume and speed. Does your voice blast? Is it difficult for your friends to hear you? Does it make one breathless trying to keep up with what you're saying, or does your slow drawl make one lose interest?

Do you express most emotions with the same monotonous tone, or is your voice flexible and varying in pitch without becoming too loud or almost inaudible? The more color and melodious tones you can acquire in your voice, the more interested people will be in listening to you.

You can achieve an appealing voice — a vibrant attribute to charm and success — by reading "Your Most Attractive Voice," which gives complete instructions on how to overcome wearisome speaking qualities as tonelessness and dullness. Write to Secrets of Charm in care of this newspaper, enclosing 10c in coin, plus stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Secrets Of Charm

by John Robert Powers

Do you ever catch yourself feeling terribly sorry—for you? Of course you do. Occasional spells of self-pity come over most people, especially when they are tired. Even more, when they are lonely.

There is no burden too heavy for the human heart to bear... until it detaches itself from others, until it feels it is beating alone and unheard. That's when troubles, whether real or imaginary, become a crushing weight.

Thank goodness, moods change, in keeping with Nature's mysterious rhythm. An overwhelming need for relief usually sends most people seeking ways to find the peace of mind and soul that helps them keep their balance, their perspective.

It is unnatural and unhealthy to stretch a spell of self-pity into a constant state of mind. Yet it happens, much too often, particularly among women. Women more than men, are sensitive to the side-effects of loneliness. To women, it is VITAL to BE INVOLVED.

That's the only way a troubled woman can keep those spells of self-pity from spilling over. If she has let herself be caught in a trap of self-imposed loneliness, she may find it's impossible to "talk herself out of it." Even if she is normally an outgoing person, she cannot let herself rely completely on others to replenish her supplies of hope and fortitude. Friends and rela-

37 New Fires Reported In W. Va. Forests

By United Press International
Thirty-seven new forest fires were reported in West Virginia Monday on the opening of the rabbit and quail season and conservation officials said the situation "is looking serious again."

Dave Sterling, District 5 forester at Milton, said 26 new fires occurred in southwestern counties, with Mingo and Lincoln reporting seven new blazes apiece.

Kanawha County reported six new fires and two of three old blazes were extinguished.

Sterling said three new blazes were reported in District 3 in central West Virginia and eight new fires in District 4 in southeastern counties around Beckley. Three old fires in District 5 were put out, he said.

The official said rain over the state the past week has all but disappeared because of the warm weather. He reminded state residents to be careful while burning debris and hunters in the woods to be careful with campfires.

Earlier Monday, State Forester Lester McClung said if the state did not get showers in the next few days, "we're going to be in trouble again."

No rain has been forecast before next weekend.

Four simple mistakes in investing and how to avoid them

Many of the estimated 17,000,000 Americans who are shareholders have acquired stock to have a second income from dividends. Others hope their money will grow over the years. Whatever your goal, you can benefit from not making these easy-to-avoid mistakes:

Mistake No. 1: Choosing your broker at random.

How to avoid: Look up a nearby Member Firm of the New York Stock Exchange. Each Member Firm is different, with its own services and characteristics. But each has these things in common: It is subject to the many regulations of the Exchange. And its Registered Representatives had to measure up to Exchange requirements when they became Member Firm brokers.

Mistake No. 2: Setting out to get rich in a hurry.

How to avoid: Ask yourself what's important to you. Then with the help of your Member Firm work out a simple long-range investment program in keeping with your circumstances.

Mistake No. 3: Investing hastily on a tip.

How to avoid: Base your judgment on facts. Such as the company's recent record. Its earnings. The dividends it pays. The price of the stock in relation to dividends. And inquire about the greater stability bonds often provide.

Mistake No. 4: Investing all the money you can find.

How to avoid: For investing use only money you don't need for living expenses or emergencies. A lot of people find it wise to invest regularly. Through our Monthly Investment Plan you can acquire stock by investing with as little as $40 every three months.

You'll find much valuable information in our booklet, "INVESTMENT FACTS." Send the coupon for a free copy.

Nikita Plays An Old Tune

The Allies are determined to maintain their right of access to West Berlin under rules of the road which they consider both reasonable and practical. In tampering with those rights, the Soviets succeeded in drawing the Allies closer together, something Washington, London and Paris haven't had much success in doing on their own lately.

What a man, and what an actor! We don't seem to realize that his training in the arts of dissembling took place under life and death circumstances. After all, Khrushchev rose to a high position under Stalin. He feared and hated Stalin, yet he hid his real feelings in order to make his own way in the world. The time would come when he could safely degrade the memory of his benefactor. When Stalin died, and the unbelieving inner circle of Communists went in to view the corpse, Khrushchev is supposed to have remarked, "This night the mice have buried the cat."

Well, a mouse that could fool the most suspicious of cats for thirty years is certainly an artist when it comes to deceit. Tensions, anyone?

Although all states license nursing homes, licensing requirements do not often go much beyond minimal requirements of sanitation and precautions against fire. Because a good many nursing homes were established by non-professionals, they have functioned beyond the reach of standard-setting medical agencies. Furthermore, many doctors frankly admit a lack of interest in the typical nursing home patient, whose age, mental attitude, and inaccessibility to the therapeutic facilities of the hospital

Brown To File As Candidate For Governor

Promises To List Financial Holdings

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI) — Elkins attorney Bonn Brown said on statewide radio Monday if he becomes a candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, "as I expect to be in the near future, I intend to file and make public a financial statement detailing my investments."

Brown, who said he plans to make a definite statement on his candidacy by the middle of next week, recorded the speech for delivery Monday through Wednesday. He clarified reports that he holds a position of influence in the Barron administration.

Brown said he had declined "several responsible positions" with the administration in order to maintain his law practice, but did accept volunteer jobs for the state.

At no time have I ever received one cent, either as expense or a salary," he said. "I have remained a private citizen at all times with commitment to no one except my own conscience, my God and family."

Brown said he would "file and make public a financial statement detailing my investments so there can be no question of conflict of interest should I be elected governor."

He said he had invested in various enterprises with income from his legal profession, including the West Virginia Speedway at Ona, near Huntington; Ravens Metal and FDR Corp., both in Parkersburg; the Citizens Bank at Weirton, and Randco, an office furniture manufacturing plant Brown said will be located in Fairmont in the near future.

The attorney said he had no apology to make "for the volunteer efforts I have rendered to the present administration and the state. I am very proud of our accomplishments in the clean-up program, the West Virginia Centennial and mental health. My word has always been my bond."

Parsons Youth Killed After Hunting Trip

Struck In Face By Shotgun Blast

PARSONS, W. Va. (UPI) — Thirteen-year-old James E. Smith III was fatally wounded by a blast from a shotgun at nearby Hamilton Monday shortly after he and a friend returned from hunting on the opening day of rabbit season.

Authorities said the victim was handing his 12-gauge shotgun to 14-year-old Roy A. Pussing when the weapon discharged. The blast struck Smith in the face, killing him instantly.

The youngster was the son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Smith II of Hamilton.

The shooting followed the weekend death of a 16-year-old Roane County youth after a similar accident. A 17-year-old Kanawha County youngster was shot accidentally and killed by a hunting companion earlier last week.

Zuber To File In Presidential W. Va. Primary

NEW YORK (UPI) — Negro attorney Paul B. Zuber said Monday he would enter the West Virginia presidential primary because the state would be a "better barometer" on civil rights feelings, since the Mountain State is a border state between the North and South.

Zuber, who also announced that he was entering the New Hampshire presidential primary, said he would run as an independent to educate the Democratic and Republican parties on civil rights.

Zuber, who has been involved in a number of civil rights cases, said, "There is not much difference between the two major parties" except on civil rights. The attorney said if he can get only 10 per cent of the vote in the primaries it will "give warning" to Democrats and Republicans alike.

His death raised the state's 1963 highway fatality toll to 354, only eight less than the year-ago total.

Police said Cooper's car went out of control while traveling the wrong way on a one-way street. A passenger was injured.

Allegany Edges Fort Hill, 7-6, In JV Struggle

Wagner Sets Up, Scores Winning TD

A successful pass on a fourth-and-25 situation enabled Allegany's Jayvees to pull out a 7-6 victory over the Fort Hill junior varsity in the final game of the season for both teams yesterday afternoon at the stadium.

Don Wagner tossed a 30-yarder to Ed Harris to pull the Little Campers out of the hole and move them within a yard of the goal. Wagner sneaked over for the score on the next play and Brooke Davis ran for the tie-breaking extra point.

Fort Hill took a 6-0 lead in the second period when Mike Baker intercepted a Wagner aerial at midfield and returned it 50 yards for a touchdown. A rushing attempt for the point-after failed.

A pass from Baker to Greg Hutton was deflected in the end zone on the final play of the game and Allegany had its second straight junior varsity win over Fort Hill by a 7-6 margin.

The victory was the third in seven games for Allegany, while the Little Sentinels closed out their log at 6-3.

The summary:
Allegany Jayvees 7 0 0 0 7-6
Fort Hill Jayvees 6 0 0 0 6-6
Point after Touchdowns: Allegany—Brooke Davis (run).

AS MONGO WON THE INTERNATIONAL—Mongo, 8, leads favored Kelso, 7, across the finish line to give the United States victory in the 12th running of the Washington, D. Mongo Survives Foul Claim To Win $150,000 International

Kelso Defeated For Turf Classic In Turf Classic

By RAY AYRES
UPI Sports Writer

LAUREL, Md. (UPI)—Mongo, one of the top turf runners in America, brilliantly displayed his best grass form at Laurel Monday to win the 12th running of the $150,000 Washington D.C. International, turning back a strong bid by Kelso in the stretch and then surviving a claim of foul by Kelso's jockey.

It was the third straight time that Kelso went down to defeat in the mile and one-half race as he trailed across the finish line a half a length behind Mongo, a tiger in the stretch.

Jockey Ismael Valenzuela, riding Kelso, claimed that Mongo came out from the rail and bothered his horse as the two thoroughbreds battled for the lead on the turn into the stretch.

But after a long deliberation the stewards disallowed the foul claim and Mongo was permitted to retain the victory and the $90,000 purse he earned the silks of Mrs. Marion Dupont Scott of Orange County, Va.

Six-Time Winner
It was the sixth triumph for an American horse and evened the score with the foreigners which also have won the international spectacle six times.

Ten horses from seven countries started and Ferumbas from Venezuela was shipped all the way from Caracas only to get left at the post.

But it was an American race almost all the way although several invaders were well placed for the first mile.

Then Kelso went after the leading Mongo and the foreign horses dropped hopelessly out of it.

Nyrcos, owned by Henri Aubert of Fontainebleau, France, was third but he was 12 lengths behind Kelso at the finish. Then in order came England's Espresso, Misti from France, Ivory Tower 2nd from Russia, Imperial from Hungary, Ferumbas, Christmas Island from Ireland, and Bryansk, a second Russian horse which was last all the way.

Comes Close To Record
Jockey Wayne Chambers, a 27-year-old native of Sasakwa, Okla., rode Mongo and guided his mount over the firm turf course in 2:27.25.

It was the second fastest running of the race, topped only by the 2:26.15 clocking turned in by T. V. Lark in 1961.

The crowd of 36,653 fully expected Kelso, "Horse of the Year" for the last three years and certain to win the title again this season, to make it down to 1 to 2 but after the stewards overruled the foul claim Mongo's backers received $9.60, $2.80 and $3.00 across the board. Kelso returned $2.40 and $2.20 while Nyrcos paid $4.20.

"He ran just like Mongo!"

Middies And Pitt Running 1-2 For Lambert Trophy

NEW YORK (AP) — Navy and Pittsburgh continued to run one-two in the unanimous voting by coaches, sports writers and sportscasters for the Lambert Trophy, emblematic of Eastern major college football supremacy. It was the third straight week that Navy (7-1) had received all the first place votes.

Pittsburgh (6-1), an impressive 27-7 winner over Notre Dame, widened its second place edge over Army (7-1), which barely squeaked past Utah 8-7. Syracuse (6-2) remained fourth after downing West Virginia 15-13. Penn State (6-2) moved into fifth on its 10-7 victory over Ohio State.

Boston College (5-2) was sixth, followed by Harvard (7-0-1) ninth and Yale (5-2) and Dartmouth (5-2) tied for 10th.

Kentucky Freshmen Clobber Vols, 70-0

LEXINGTON, Ky. (UPI)—The University of Kentucky freshman football team, already hailed as perhaps the strongest in the school's history, buried Tennessee's freshmen, 70-0, Monday with halfback Frank Antolini alone scoring 40 points.

Antolini, a 190-pound speedster from Ambridge, Pa., racked up six touchdowns and two two-point conversions as the Wildkittens humiliated their greatest rivals to complete an unbeaten season.

Navy Ranked Second In UPI Poll, Texas Strengthens Grip On Lead

Top Ten Intact, But Six Teams Switch Places

By GEORGE C. LANGFORD

UPI Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UPI) — Texas, the only major college football team with a spotless record, Monday strengthened its grip on first place in the United Press International Board of Coaches rating.

Navy, with brilliant junior quarterback Roger Staubach at the helm, sailed into second place. Mississippi, the South-eastern Conference leader and owner of the only other unbeaten (one tie) record in the Top 10, padded its No. 3 standing. The Top 10 teams remained intact from last week for the first time this season, although six teams swapped places.

The Longhorns picked up six more first-place ballots from the 35 coaches on the UPI board compared to 25 last week to total 31. The remaining four coaches picked them second and awarded two No. 1 nominations each to Navy and Mississippi. Michigan State, the Big 10 leader, climbed from eighth to fourth; Pittsburgh, No. 5, also moved up four places from ninth and Oklahoma remained in sixth.

Alabama held on to the No. 7 spot, Illinois slipped into eighth after absorbing its first loss of the season from Michigan; Nebraska, the Big Eight pacesetter, edged into ninth place and Auburn, which lost its perfect record and No. 5 ranking in the last 22 seconds against Mississippi State Saturday, replaced the Cornhuskers in 10th.

Washington, leading the Big Six and winner of five consecutive since losing three in a row, jumped two places to 11th. Army likewise moved up two notches to 12th and Georgia Tech climbed from 17th to 13th.

Baylor, a 7-0 loser to Texas Saturday, fell to 14th from 11th and Missouri held on to its No. 15 ranking. Penn State returned to the ratings in 16th after its victory over Ohio State, shoving the Buckeyes down to 17th. Memphis State, the only other unbeaten (one tie) team in the ratings; Syracuse and Arizona State University, winner of six straight after an opening season loss to Wichita, locked in a three-way tie for 18th to complete the top 20.

The Longhorns knocked off then top-ranked Oklahoma five weeks ago and have reigned as the nation's No. 1 team ever since. Coach Darrell Royal's eleven have won eight straight this season and are unbeaten in their last 19 regular season games (including one tie). They lost to LSU 13-0 in the Cotton Bowl last Jan. 1.

Only Texas Christian (3-3-1) next week and Texas A&M (1-6) Thanksgiving Day stand between the Longhorns and their first national championship in history and first unbeaten-untied season in 43 years. Texas also will be seeking its third straight South-west Conference crown and its fifth consecutive bowl bid.

Pitt tackles Army at home, Oklahoma visits Missouri, and Alabama meets Georgia Tech at Birmingham in contests between ranking teams this week-end.

Kathy Whitworth Wins Playoff

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Kathy Whitworth won the $8,500 San Antonio Civitan Open in a sudden death playoff with Mickey Wright Monday.

The two had tied for the lead at 72 holes with 299.

Miss Whitworth took the first hole of the playoff with a par while Miss Wright had a bogey. Miss Whitworth, in winning her seventh tournament of the year, picked up $1,300, second place paid $1,000.

Officials Assigned For Saturday Games

Only two area high school football games are scheduled for this week (Saturday) and officials assigned to those contests are as follows:

Annapolis at Allegany (1:30) — John Shelton, Jim Gaffney, Richard Vaughan and Hubert Feeney. Charles Town vs. Bruce at Keyser (1:30) — John J. Cavanaugh, George Lovenstein and John Fox.

Fight At Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Welterweight champion Emile Grifith and middleweight contender Rubin (Hurricane) Carter have signed for a 10-round non-title fight Dec. 20, it was announced Monday.

The bout will be staged in Pittsburgh's Civic Arena as the television fight of the week.

TCU Coach Hanged In Effigy, Blames Publicity Seeker

FORT WORTH (AP)—Texas Christian Coach Abe Martin was hanged in effigy Sunday night on the University campus.

The dummy, dangling from a tree in front of Daniel-Meyer Coliseum, bore a note which read:

"We want a new coach. Down with Abe."

Texas Christian lost Saturday to Louisiana State at Baton Rouge. The Horned Frogs have a season record of three wins, three losses and a tie.

Martin, questioned about the incident, said:

"It was just a prank by a young kid who wanted publicity. This isn't the first time this has happened."

"I was hanged in effigy in 1956, right after we lost to Texas Tech, and that was the year we had Jim Swink and played in the Cotton Bowl."

SSAC Turns Down Charleston Appeal

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI) — Executive Secretary W. Gordon Eismon of the State Secondary Schools Activities Commission (SSAC) said Monday that an appeal by Charleston High School in an effort to force a Triple-A football playoff was turned down.

Buckhannon (10-0) thus stands as the AAA champion without a playoff.

Ceredo - Kenova and Hinton clash here Saturday afternoon for the AA title while Winfield meets Northfork-Elkhorn at Logan for the Class-A crown. C-K finished top-rated in AA season play and Winfield in Class-A.

Williamsport Defeats Valley, 4-3, For District Soccer Championship

Crist's Field Goal Decides Playoff Battle At Hancock

Center forward Steve Crist kicked a field goal 5½ minutes before the final whistle to give Williamsport High School, of Washington county a 4-3 victory over the Valley High School Black Knights of Lonaconing yesterday at Hancock.

Valley cracked the scoring column in the third period and trailed 2-1 when Denny Ashby booted a penalty goal.

Valley Goes Ahead

With six minutes remaining in the final stanza, Sam Turnbull put the Black Knights in front at 3-2 with a field goal but a half minute later Crist gave Williamsport a come-from-behind victory when he slammed in a shot from scrimmage.

The value of a field goal was increased to two points in yesterday's game and a penalty goal remained at one point.

Gary Monninger, Krebs and Turner played best for the newly crowned champions while Ronnie Alexander, Ronnie Whittington and Phil and Dennis Shockey were outstanding for Valley High.

Knights Won 7 of 10

This is the first time a district champion has been crowned since the statewide tournaments were discontinued in the 1930s.

Valley concluded its season with a 7-3 record.

Stock Market Registers Third Straight Advance

NEW YORK (UPI)—Stocks

scored their third successive gain Monday after staging an orderly advance on typical holiday trading.

Although the stock market was open, many quarters recessed to observe Veterans' Day.

Dow-Jones industrial average moved up 2.96 and Standard & Poor's 500 stock index finished up 0.76. Trading totaled 3,970,000 shares compared with 4,570,000 in the previous session.

Rails were up 1.98, largely reflecting gains of 1 1/8 in Chicago & North Western, 1 1/4 in Kansas City Southern and 1 1/2 each in Chicago, Rock Island, Southern Pacific and Southern Railway. Utilities eased off 0.02.

Electronics paced the advance with Zenith up 2 1/2, RCA 3, Minneapolis - Honeywell 3 3/4, IBM 2 1/2, Fairchild Camera 2 1/2, Electronic Associates 3 1/2 and Control Data 7 1/4. High Voltage Engineering rose 3/4 on news it plans to build a $1.5 million building at its Massachusetts headquarters.

Chicago Grains

CHICAGO (UPI)—Wheat ended steady to firm, but most other grain futures took a sharp dip Monday on the Chicago Board of Trade.

At the close, wheat was unchanged to up 3/8; corn off 3/4 to 1; oats unchanged to off 1/2; rye up 2 to 2 1/2; and soybeans up 1/2 to 3/4.

Initial buying of wheat and other cereals was prompted by weekend news that U.S. officials and Soviet traders had reached an agreement on basic conditions for a wheat deal. The government has reportedly withdrawn from the negotiations and left the details to private grain traders.

Wheat rose nearly 2 cents a bushel on early buying but traders apparently discounted the wheat talks news by mid-morning as nearby deliveries weakened.

A commodity credit corp. sale of 370,000 bushels of corn to exporters spurred hedge selling by elevator houses. Corn prices weakened.

Soybeans started with a 2 cent gain on short covering, firm spot prices and anticipation of a lower government crop forecast, due tomorrow. Profit-taking appeared at noon and knocked prices more than 3 cents below the previous close.

Oats tumbled more than 2 cents as local selling and liquidation followed selling by export houses. Oats declined slightly with corn.

Zoning Appeal About Towers Is Postponed

Only One Board Member Available

A hearing scheduled for 2 p. m. today by the Allegany County Board of Appeals involving a zoning certificate for two radio towers and two buildings on Haystack Mountain has been postponed indefinitely because only one of the three board members could attend the session at the Court House.

Ralph G. Cover, Bowling Green, the one board member who could have attended the hearing, said last night that he will submit his resignation from the board to the Board of County Commissioners soon.

Will Be Away

Mr. Cover said his decision was not affected by the postponement of today's hearing. He explained that he has been a member of the board since its creation under the county's interim zoning ordinance nearly two years ago. He will be in Florida for most of the winter and believes some other resident of the county should be appointed by the county commissioners to succeed him. A permanent ordinance will become effective in the spring.

Wilbur Johnson, vice chairman of the board, had planned to attend today's hearing. However, over the weekend Local 676, United Papermakers and Paperworkers, AFL-CIO, which he serves as president, scheduled two union meetings today at the Welsh Theatre in Westernport on a new contract offered by West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company. The meetings are at 1 and 7 p. m. and will prevent Mr. Johnson from coming to the Court House.

Everett G. Partridge, chairman of the zoning board, earlier had disqualified himself from hearing the case.

The hearing, the 19th scheduled by the board since its establishment, was brought at the request of Sunset View Real Estate and Development Company, which charges administrative error in the granting of a zoning certificate for two radio towers and two buildings on Seneca Avenue just west of the Cumberland city limits on Haystack Mountain in Election District 6.

Order In Force

This matter was brought into Circuit Court last month. On October 3, Chief Judge Morgan C. Harris ruled that a restraining order against the Wes-Mar Communications Sales and Service Company concerning the two towers and two block houses near Sunset View would remain in force pending the use of procedures before two separate zoning agencies.

Sunset View Real Estate and Development Company brought action against Wes-Mar in connection with the towers, which are for use in two-way radio communications. The antennas are for use of the city police and fire departments and the sheriff's office.

As a result of Judge Harris' decision, Wes-Mar is required to file new applications for permits for the installation. Hearings will be necessary before both the county board, for part of the land is in District 6, and before the LaVale Zoning Board for a part in District 29.

CURA Budget Is Discussed

The Cumberland Urban Renewal Agency last night reviewed items in budgets approved by the Urban Renewal Administration for Cumberland projects.

The federal agency recently approved the advance of $76,950 for preparing plans for the Center of the City rehabilitation program and $72,500 for surveys and planning the George Street Urban Renewal Project.

Plans were made to hold a special meeting, when a representative of Simonds and Simonds could be present to discuss the relationship between the budget and the firm's proposed contract for planning services.

In connection with the selection of the Pittsburgh firm, a letter was read from the Municipal Planning and Zoning Commission, expressing pleasure with the selection and offering full cooperation.

Marion T. Powers, CURA chairman, commented that he has received many favorable comments since the selection of the firm was announced and said he felt "we have made a wise choice."

Police Seek Owners Of Stolen Bicycles

The Cumberland Police Department has a number of bicycles and parts of bicycles in the basement of the Public Safety Building and is interested in getting rid of them.

Police Chief B. Frank Gaffney said yesterday that many of the bikes were stolen and later recovered although it is not known to whom they belong.

He said there are bikes, part of which were dismantled and found in various sections of the city.

'Grounded' Mathias Speaks Here

The latest issue of "Capitol Comment," the weekly column of Rep. Charles McC. Mathias, has an amusing yarn about how he happened to be the guest speaker at the annual dinner meeting of the Cumberland Flying Association on Saturday, November 2.

Rep. Mathias accompanied a group from the Corps of Engineers on an inspection flight over the Potomac River Basin. On that afternoon, November 2, he attended the dedication ceremonies for a new flood protection wall at Kitzmiller.

"An unexpected sidelight of the trip resulted in the Cumberland Flying Association having me as a substitute speaker at their annual banquet that evening," Rep. Mathias wrote.

"A sudden snowstorm prevented our plane from taking off at Cumberland airport. It also prevented Frank Kingston Smith, professional flyer, author and scheduled banquet speaker from landing. The welcoming committee, on hand to do honors to Mr. Smith, lost no time in sizing up the situation and presenting the indisputable argument that you're down here and can't get down—we need a speaker for the banquet, so you take his place. I did—that's why the Cumberland Flying Association heard an unannounced and unprepared speech by Mathias instead of a 'flying' speech by Frank Kingston Smith."

Va. Boys Nabbed In Auto Theft, Entry, Larceny

Hitchhikers Also Taken Into Custody

Two Alexandria, Va., boys who were arrested in LaVale yesterday in company with two hitchhikers from Massachusetts, are being held in the Allegany County jail in connection with the possession of a concealed weapon, breaking and entering of a service station in Virginia and larceny of about $162 over the weekend, said Maryland State Police.

Questioned by police and being held in the county jail are the two Negroes from Alexandria, 16 and 17 years of age, who police said admitted breaking into the service station at Mt. Pleasant, Va., and taking the money from a small cabinet after they stole the car on Sunday at Bailey Crossroads, Va.

Hitchhikers Held

Also being held for Massachusetts authorities are Richard J. Ribeiro, 21, of Belchertown, and William F. Savard, 19, of Holyoke, who told police they are on probation and were hitchhiking in Hagerstown when they were picked up by the Alexandria youths.

Tfc. Bernard J. Chabot, criminal investigator for the State Police, said last night that about 9 a. m. yesterday he became suspicious of a car being driven through LaVale.

He stopped the driver, Ribeiro, and on routine questioning learned he did not have the registration card. He told the driver and the other three youths to get out of the car so he could search it.

Trooper Chabot said he found a loaded .38 calibre revolver under the front seat and when he opened the glove compartment he found over $100. He also noticed blood stains on the steering wheel.

Car Impounded

The trooper called the barracks for an assist. Troopers Leonard Glenn and Carl Harbaugh responded and impounded the car.

Trooper Chabot learned that one of the Alexandria youths had cut himself when breaking into the service station and that accounted for the blood on the steering wheel.

One of the Alexandria youths told the trooper that the revolver belonged to him and he carried it with him.

After the youths broke into the service station and took the money, according to the trooper, they proceeded to Baltimore, got on U. S. Route 40 and continued on to Hagerstown where they picked up the two men from Massachusetts.

LaVale Zoning Case Scheduled For Tonight

The LaVale Zoning Board will conduct a hearing at 7:30 p. m. today at the LaVale Fire Hall on an application for rezoning of a tract of land along the northeastern side of Winchester Road.

A change from Residential A to Commercial A zone is requested for the property which is across Winchester Road from Searstown shopping center and is bounded on the southwest by Coverwood.

There have been reports that developers want to construct an office building on the premises.

UPIDC To Meet

The board of directors of the Upper Potomac Industrial Development Company will meet Thursday at noon in the conference room of the Chamber of Commerce office, according to C. M. Samner, president.

Man Stricken At Work Here

A 61-year-old Poughkeepsie, N.Y., electrician suffered a heart attack yesterday afternoon while working on a dumbwaiter at the First Federal Savings and Loan Association, 141 Baltimore Street, and was pronounced dead on arrival at Sacred Heart Hospital, authorities said.

The man was identified as Herman Doern who was an employee of the Sedgwick Machine Company, according to authorities, who said an autopsy was performed.

City firemen Patrick Himmeler and Walter Deneen rushed to the loan association building with the fire department's emergency truck and assisted in getting the man to the hospital in the McDonald ambulance.

Firemen said they received a call at 2:32 p. m. and had difficulty in extricating the man from the dumbwaiter mechanism. The body was removed to the Kight Funeral Home.

Md. Teachers Back Education Aid Program

Final Action Is Likely This Week

BALTIMORE (AP) — The state's $17 million plan for aid to education gained approval Monday from a Maryland State Teachers Association official.

Robert Y. Dubel, associate executive secretary of the teachers' group said, "We're extremely encouraged, both by the amount of new state aid and also in the way we understand it will be distributed."

The plan is now before the Committee on Taxation and Fiscal Matters of the Legislative Council. Final action on the proposal is expected from the committee later this week.

The plan revises existing formulas for distributing state aid, a change sought by the teachers at this year's session of the General Assembly. The legislature voted down the change.

State aid for operating expenses would total $14,604,000 and aid for construction and debt service would total $1,397,000 under the new proposal. More than $7 million of the total package would go to the Baltimore metropolitan area.

Proposals for financing the measure have included increasing the beer and wine tax and reducing the state income tax exemption from $800 to $600. The teachers association has announced it would approve financing the aid through the income tax.

Del. Charles S. Bresler, R-Montgomery, who heads a minority budget committee, has criticized the income tax plan on grounds the tax falls heaviest on those who are least able to pay.
